

From my 21st birthday until today life has been one constant adventure. A vision when I was 15, headed me toward trusting God, and showed that something-out-there was to be my security and source of supply. The hardest lesson in my life has been the bizarre need to be original in what I do. I have learned from my study and research from other people's work, but have tested it through my own experience.

What I have learned:

- Self-empowerment. Knowing there are no two things in the Universe, there is only one. Knowing Mind, Energy and God are interchangeable names for this Source energy. It is the Conscious union with this life force that gives true Freedom.
- Co-Creating with Source energy and keeping balanced interchange with our 'doing' is true Self-empowerment.
- This Source Mind is not a void. It is Love, Life, Truth, Intelligence, Spirit, Soul, and Principle.* It is infused with dynamic power that is unleashed with focused thought. Intent or Attitude pre-dominates materialized form.
- How can the knowledge of Gold, Huna and Science facilitate Self-empowerment? How can asking questions and dowsing assist you in being your best self? These are areas of my greatest interest.

Gold has a radiating frequency that permeates the very air we breathe. We have been taught through demonstration, from the earliest records that it is for the gods, royalty or churches, but not for us. Therefore, our subconscious programming pushes us away from even its smallest frequencies. To embrace it is to understand it. To understand the Gold frequencies and dowse those into our systems can open our connections to our wholeness.

Huna is the ancient knowledge that explains our three selves; Conscious, Subconscious and Super Conscious Selves. When all three Selves agree, there is little we cannot do. Specific meditations and prayer have been passed down through the Kahunas. My studies and therapy practice has helped hundreds of people reclaim their lives.

Science is a process of discovery. Through practical investigation of the behavior of the physical and natural world. It is a way to approach life. When natural Law facilitates the experiments, God is often included.

Astrology The sky is without limit, yet, part of your basic uniqueness is how the planets are aligned at your birth time. Non-believers seem more like the proverbial blindfolded man describing the elephant by touching the elephant's tail. Having your astrology chart and interpretations is like having the wheel at the helm of ship in any weather.

I have been studying astrology and doing charts since the early '80's, but feel there is more to offer than any thousand astrologers trying to prove any one point. It is a constant, at hand, discovery unique to the person.

Psychic Readings For reasons known to Cosmic discernment, I was born with high psychic potentials. After a serious auto accident in 1975, those sensitivities saved my life and brought me to deep spiritual awareness of the unseen world. My battles with the sinister side of astral interferences have gifted me with seeing blocked energy in others as well as potentials for new awakenings. I see and hear spirit and feel the loving presence of Spiritual guides and teachers.

Private Huna Sessions are introductions to your Subconscious Self. The Child within holds on to childhood and sometimes past life experiences with the same sense of fear, anger and frustration as the event itself. By meeting your subconscious, a real relationship is formed that is available for forgiving, and a releasing that is oftentimes permanent.
